

LOCAL SHOWS

- 55 Minutes - a variety of music styles, themes & artists in one short easily digestible 55 minute package! Scott G
- Blues Hus - from New Orleans to Chicago to the West coast, all blues genres have a room at the Hus, w/LeAllan E
- Church Messages - recorded talks by local clergy from
- CoverAlls - all covers, by famous & lesser-known artists across a wide range of genres from rock to jazz & more, Kim L
- Digital Vinyl - Kristina plays you an hour of her favorite fun classic/modern punk and alternative music
- Fastest 60 minutes on the North Shore with The Fish Man - upbeat mainstream rock with a chaser of wit and wisdom
- Following 61 - the "sound alternative to silence" tours hour-long musical themes, both ridiculous and sublime w/Leo
- Grounds Control - weekdays morning show with variety of hosts: local events, weather and info, interviews, music
- Harvest Program a variety program covering the history of recorded music over the past 100 years, by Robert J
- 60's Roots - rock to Motown to British Invasion and more, with George [1st Mondays still Hootenanny/folk revival]
- Knife River News - Paul VonGertz shares news and history from the village of Knife River
- Listeners' Voices - written & recorded responses from listeners to biweekly prompts, hosted by Frances and Fran
- The New Beat Farm - live local music showcase, hosted by local and regional musicians Leslie B & Carl Z
- Nordic Roots, Then & Now - explores shared influences of Nordic countries, here and there, then and now, Arna R
- Northwoods Archive - a musical sojourn exploring a common thread running several artists: Shane, Scott, Kim, Peg
- One Track Mind - Andrew brings you one great tune with a half hour adventure in long form music; Andrew also produces Uncle Andy Music and Armchair Ethnomusicologist, rotating in the same time slots
- Saturday Morning Mix - short features of local, regional & seasonal interest, with interviews from the week's morning shows, hosted alternately by Scott, Amy and Fran
- Southern Crossroads - exploring the influences of blues, R&B, soul, and funk on American culture, by Zak W
- Special Topics in Indie & New Wave appreciate the depth of indie/college/new wave (1979-95) with Katie W
- Superior Jazz - jazz standards to emerging artists shore to get you in the groove, alt with Blues Hus, Beth A
- Tale Collector - discussion of obscure/lesser known stories from various media and of varying genre, by Erika A
- Tub of Dub - Sort of reggae but fewer words and more echo, curated by Bruce the Moose
- What's Happening - Katya interviews community leaders in Two Harbors about local events, issues, projects, etc.

NON-LOCAL SHOWS:

- 51%: women's perspective on issues around environment, health, our children, politics and the arts (NE Public Radio)
- Acoustic Café: the latest from today's great songwriting talents
- All Mixed Up with Peter Bochan: an eclectic collage of great music and current-events sound bites (New York)
- Alternative Radio: provides information, analyses & views frequently ignored or distorted in corporate media (CA)
- Anonymous Eskimo Project: delves into the deeply personal topics of substance abuse recovery and mental health
- Barnaby Druthers: bumbling British detective investigates cozy mysteries with intellectual partner Harper Thorne
- Baroque and Beyond: Dr. Michael White shares his collection of classical music of many eras

Best of our Knowledge: highlights breakthroughs in education across disciplines and across the globe [Not WPR's TTBOOK]

Between the Lines: under-reported/ignored/marginalized national and international news, some NE regional

Beyond the Barrier: experimental, ambient and electronic music

Big Picture Science: engages the public with modern science research through smart and humorous storytelling

Bioneers-Revolution from the Heart of Nature: in-depth interviews with leading social and scientific innovators

The Children's Hour: created by and for kids and families using excellent music, expert guests and talented kids

Choose to be Curious: conversations about how curiosity shows up in work and life

Counterspin: critical examination of major stories every week, exposing what mainstream media might have missed

Country Jamboree: classic country music from Berkeley, California

Deep Threes: eclectic instrumental soundscapes punctuated with occasional charismatic lyrical pronouncements

Dream Farm Radio: independent jazz musicians perform and talk about what inspires them in Julie's family barn

Extinction Radio: news of the climate crisis through conversation, interviews and expert perspectives

The Food Sleuth: thinking beyond your plates, connecting the dots between food, health and agriculture, finding food truth

Global Village: a wide range of world music, from classic recordings to the latest new releases

Hot Jazz Review: blues, stomps, and rags primarily composed in the early 1900s [alts w/ Rhythm Sweet & Hot]

The Jazz Scene: the best in traditional and mainstream jazz from the past and present

Indigefi: an eclectic blend of modern indigenous music (California)

Indigenous in the News: from Native Voice One

Juke in the Box: 40s and 50s rhythm and blues

Lake Air - contemporary jazz, New Age/acoustic

Left, Right & Center: current political topics addressed by speakers from across the political spectrum (California)

Linda Lee's Polka Show: "cooking with polkas" - polkas with recipes from Linda & Bill of Frankenmuth, Michigan

Mindwebs: Enigmatic stories in a haunting voice; theater of the mind incites your imagination & inspires your humanity.

Music for the Mountain: hard driving bluegrass music, new and old, produced in New Hampshire

National Native News: relevant, timely coverage on Native American and Indigenous communities

Opus Day: a sound collage of mostly music, but also word pieces, found sounds, & bits of popular culture

Person, Place, Thing: features a well-known guest talking about their favorite person, place and thing; live audience

The Poet and the Poem: features leading poets reading their work, sponsored by the Library of Congress

Techtonic: things technology, featuring guests illuminating and critiquing our shift to a digital future

This is Science: from the Union of Concerned Scientists, channeling the power of science to make the world a better place

Radio Curious: interviews on a curiously wide array of topics concerning life and ideas (California)

Radio Theater Project: an anthology series of dramas and comedies for radio (Washington State)

Red Barn Radio: celebrating the music of Kentucky

Rhythm Sweet and Hot: captures the essence of musical culture from the 1920s to 1940s [alts with Hot Jazz Review]

Sea Change: advancing the shifts to social, environmental, and economic sustainability (San Francisco)

Sounds from the Global Village: features an eclectic mix of artists and styles from all corners of the globe.

Spirit in Action: interviews with leaders in peace, justice & "good works" about the spiritual roots of their work (Wis)

Sprouts: local radio productions of national interest, produced by community radio stations across the country

Storyland & Tell us a Tale: a mix of stories and music for kids of all ages

This Way Out: an international news magazine of gay, lesbian, bisexual and transgender issues (California)

Tom & Doug Show: T&D discuss life, art, & culture through the perspective of their hilarious original music (Iowa)

Ukraine 2 4 2: cutting edge exclusive interviews giving a direct & personal account of the unfolding war in Ukraine

UpFront Soul: funk, soul, and jazz, soulful sounds to which you may get down

Upstate Radio Theater: best of old time radio, forgotten classics, obscurities, & contemporary radio dramas (NY)

What's the Frequency, Kenneth? a "newsical" series from award winning writer/producer Paul Fischer

With Good Reason: wide range of topics with leading scholars and featured guests (Virginia Humanities)